TOWN TO PROBE REPORT OF CHILDREN

J. A. STEVENS, Editor and Proprietor.

YAZOO CITY, (MI.) FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1839.

VOL. 4, No. 13.—Whole No. 169.

Yaxoo City Whig and Political Register PRINTED AND PUBLISHED RYERY FRIDAY,

On Jefferson Street, opposite the Washington Hotel, and one door below Messes. Haff & Washington Store. TERMS .- The Water will be furnished to subacribers at $5 00 per annum in advance; $5 50 at the termination of six months, and $6 00 if not paid until the expiration of the year.

Adventisements will be inserted at the rate of $1 00 per square for the first insertion, and 50 cents for each weak thereafter-ten lines or less, constituting a square. The number of insertionare-quired, must be marked on the margin of the manascript, or they will be inserted till forbid, and charged accordingly. Advertisements from a distance, must be accompanied with the case, or good reference in town. Announcing candidates for office will be $10 00 for county offices, $10 00 for State offices-in advance,

Yearly Advertising. For forty lines or less, renewable at pleasure No contract taken for less than one yearand payable half yearly in advance. The privilege of annual advertisers is limited to their own immediate business; and all advertisements for the benefit of other persons, sent in by them must be paid for by the square. Professional Advertisements.

For 10 lines or less, not alterable, 3 months, $12 ... 10 do do. do 6 do. 20 ... 10 do do. do 12 do. 30 As the above rates are the same as those established in Natchez, Vicksburg, Jackson, Grand Gulf and elsewhere in this State, no deduction will be made from them in any case whatever.

ON DELIVERY.

* Letters on business must be post paid, or the will not be taken out of the Post Office.

To the Public.

The rights of editors and publishers of papers have been too long neglected. Justice will never be done unless themselves assert their rights ble fashion we know of is that of wearing and enforce the most rigid rules, which in the rings in the ears. It is unquestionably a and enforce the most rigid rules, which in the end will be found alike salutary to the public and beneficial to those engaged in the press. Publishers of papers have been so long imposed upon by the community at large, that they are considered to some extent a degraded class of beings, ers lived a savage life, to entirely eradicate ers lived a savage life, to entirely eradicate when in fact there is no vocation in life so honorable, deserving of so high consideration, productive of so much good, a class that exerts so powertive of so much good, ful an influence. It is known to be proverbial for stone or glass hanging from their ears, and The following is an extract from their demands as the last to be paid-debts to which there is attached no moral obligation, and which they can refuse to pay with justice and ments, instanter. We laugh at the Indians honor: hence, it is incumbent upon the conduc- for boting their nose and lips, but such a mingled his dust with of the United States Bank were showered tors of the press to assert their own rights, and custom is not more ridiculously disfiguring to whom it was addressed, has given his his sub-Treasury scheme; and even those that of his abused ancestors, the name of out as thick as black berries, and so acceptable severally and jointly, to bring all patrons to the horizontal patrons. of newspapers under the same obligations that at tach to other contracts, or always remain in pov. lent among the fashionables. Indeed, such erty and want, with thousands due them from the is the foolish manner of dressing the head most solvent men in the country.
We call upon all editors and publishers of pa-of their papers, and strictly adhere to them.

months.

4th. To announce no man for any office, either State or County, without the advance payment of 5th. Political circulars charged as advertisements and payment required in advance.

tion will be charged double and payment requir-

8th. All subscribers, without respect to persons who are delinquents, on the first of October, will sense of hearing," be stricken from the list, and their accounts put ourselves to abide by.

The above rules, we, the undersigned, pledge

JAMES A. STEVENS, S. H. B. BLACK. Editor of the Natchez Courier of the happy event: BESANCON & HALIDAY. Publishers of the Mississippi Free Trader. JAMES HAGAN. Editor and Proprietor of the Vicksburg Sentinel. WM. M. SMYTH, Editor and Proprietor of the Grand Gulf Adv. A. B. & S. C. CORWINE, Editors and Proprietors of the Yazoo Banner.

GEORGE A. WILSON, Editor & Proprietor of the Holly-Springs Banner TAOMAS BROWN, Editor of the Rodney Telegraph J. M. DUFFIELD, W. B. TEBO, Editor of the Fayette Advertiser NEED & NEWTON, pers of the Southern Report BAKER & CURTIS, Editors and Proprietors of the Southern Argus. M, MOWER, Publisher of the Southern Sentin ARCA S. CLARK. Publisher of the Port Gibson Corres WM. M. TOLBERT. Publisher of the Democratic Union. A. B. BECKWITH, Proprietor of the Independent Journal.

JOHN MURDAUGH. Yazoo City, Mississippi.

NOTICE:

TOSEPH HOLT, of Vicksburg, Q. D. GIBBS, of Yazoo City, and R. S. HOLT, of Benton, have associated in practice in the emetic. -N. Y. Visiter. Superior Court of Chancery, at Jackson, in If you wish to speak, go into the company all cases, from Yazoo. April 19

BATTAILE & HAMER. LAWYERS. ADDRESS.

JOHN BATTAME at Benion, C. F. Hames, at Yazoo City, Mississippi. Feb. 22, 33—tf JAMES W. MCKINSTRY,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOP AT LAW. Aug 24-7tf MANGMESTER, MI. A. W. G. & J. W. DAVIS,

LAWTERS, OFFICE AT GREENSBOROUGH, MI. Will practice in the several Courts of the 2d doing that thing. JOB PRINTING.

MUSE'S BOWDE.

From the New-York Whige DIUSIC. Oh, where in Nature's varied round, Is not thy voice, sweet music found? "Fis in the sky, the sea, the air;

Tis on the earth, in forest fair. There's music in the occan's roar, As breaks the wave on rook-bound at There's music in the rippling wave, As o'er the rocks its water's lave; There's music in the howling blant, As swift it sweeps the woodland past;

There's music in the gentle breeze,
As soft it sighs through waving trees;
There's music in the eagle's cry,
As swift it mounts the cloudless sky;
There's music in the warbler's glee, As blithe it sings on blossomed tree;

There's music in the bugle's note, As o'er the fields its echoes float; bere's music in the huntsman's horn, As through the wood its notes are borne; There's music in the sweet guitar As soft its notes are borne afar. And sweet the harp's bewitching power

At evening's calm and peaceful hour; But ah, the music of my choice— The music sweet of woman's voice. August 29, 1839.

Hope is the balm and life-blood of the soul: It pleases and it lasts. Indulgent beaven Sent down the kind delusion through the paths Of rugged life to lead us patient on; And make our happiest state no tedious thing. Our greatest good, and what we least can spare rings in the ears. It is unquestionably a dangling from their faces, they would certainly abandon such articles, called ornain our days, with some of the feminine genhem by their aignatures—place them at the head only wants the ivory to her nose, to resemble their papers, and strictly adhere to them.

LOOK HERE LADIES!-The most abomina-

1st. No subscription received without payment in advance.

1st. No subscription received without payment in advance.

1st. No subscription received for less than six in advance.

1st. No subscription received for less than six in advance.

1st. No subscription received for less than six in advance.

1st. No subscription received for less than six in advance.

1st. No subscription received for less than six in advance in in advance in the reception of Mr. Leigh's letter, (when appealing to the subscription that absorbs all others, and in advance in the reception of Mr. Leigh's letter, (when appealing to the subscription that absorbs all others, and draft for 10,000 on the Custom-house in the reception of Mr. Leigh's letter, (when appealing to the subscription received for less than six in the midst of a sandy description of Mr. Leigh's letter, (when appealing to the subscription that absorbs all others, and draft for 10,000 on the Custom-house in the reception of Mr. Leigh's letter, (when appealing to the subscription received for less than six in the midst of a sandy description.

1st. No subscription received without payment the great of the subscription of any moment in the nead only wants the ivory to her nose, to resemble the subscription of Mr. Leigh's letter, (when appealing to the subscription of any moment in the nead only wants the ivory to her nose, to resemble the subscription of Mr. Leigh's letter, (when appealing to the subscription of any moment in the nead only wants the ivory to her nose, to resemble the subscription of the sub description of it, he went on to say "that Peterburg, and a letter addressed by him does not (and I believe he does not profess 6th. All advertisements of a personal altereathat the ladies might be equally well broken 7th. Election tickets will not be printed with- ing to other people's business, by hanging out order, nor delivered to any person without large weights to their ears, to pull them out of their natural shape and so deaden the

An old gentleman of the name of Gould lately married a girl scarcely nineteen years I spoke of in my speech at Petersburg, was Mr. Van Buren on this single question, he of age. After the wedding the juvenile an organization of treasures and treasurers abandons the party of the opposition on ev-Editor and Proprietor of the Yazoo City Whig. bridegroom addressed to his friend Doctor at various points in the Union, all connected ery other, especially on the question of the G-, the following couplet to inform him with the General Treasury at Washington, succession. And the public journals friend To which the doctor replied:

A girl of nineteen may love Goven it is true; "Think there's any danger, mister meangeery man, from that Boy Contractor?"-"Oh no," said the man, "the sarpent don't bite, he swallows his wittals whole."

Editor of Grand Gulf Whig by dashing young men, when the tones of should have no share in the custody, any as heartily opposed to Mr. Van Buren's relove and the words of compliment float out more than in the disposition of it, save what election as ever. But if this be the ground together, when you are excited by the was entrusted to him by law. Now Mr. Van Mr. Calhoun means to take, I do not undermovements of the whirling waltz, or melted Buren's Sub-Treasury system is based upon stand him, and he is very generally misun-

> 'Madam,' said a gentleman to a lady of fashion, on seeing the protrait of a yo her neck, 'I am concerned to see my frien 'If a girl were to fall in love with you. said a young lady to a corporal, 'what would you do? 'Present arms!' replied he .- Ib.

Friendship is like a cobler's tie, That joins two soles in unity; But Love is like a cobler's awl, That pierces thro' the sole and all.

41-tf of those who speak little; if you wish to learn silence, court the society of those who are eternally prattling .- To.

pretence that harmsses a ruined man—the diffied or taken away from him by law. Soon- of affairs, more than I should in almost any There is scarcely a political event that steam-joints are constructed merely by the struggle between a proud mind and an er, much sooner, than admit this new, and other state of things that does not illustrate some of colaptation of polished metallic surfaces,

If a girl has pretty teeth she laughs often; oute for an horeditary monarchy; for the greet she has pretty teeth she laughs often; laim, if admitted and acted on, must lead the special shall concur in nominating.

If a girl has pretty teeth she laughs often; oute for an horeditary monarchy; for the greet she was comprehensive survey of its operations. The controlling motive of all their the opposition shall concur in nominating.

It is the greet she dislikes all to monarchy, and to the worst of monarchies, by the worst, though by far the easiest of all their the opposition shall concur in nominating.

I shall sacrifice all minor considerations and under all circum- and Genk Memocan Hunt on the part of the sacrifice and under all circum- and Genk Memocan Hunt on the part of the sacrifice and under all circum- and Genk Memocan Hunt on the part of the sacrifice and under all circum- and Genk Memocan Hunt on the part of the sacrifice and under all circum- and Genk Memocan Hunt on the part of the sacrifice and under all circum- and Genk Memocan Hunt on the part of the sacrifications.

Judicial District for this state. Nov. 23-20ti (I pass, as the brag player said wen he to talk of hard money currency, (since, it is Of every description, executed at this office. stable entering another.

"To all which I hereby set my hand and seal, as the fallow said ven he bunged the tother fellows eye, vot told him he vos a liar. A Mauren.—'What are you down there for?' said a gentleman in one of our Mississippi towns to a loafer who was lying in the gutter. 'Me! oh I've only fallen a martyr to the gallon Law, that's all.

POLITICAL.

VIEWS OF A SOUND AND ENLIGHT-

Sub-Treasury Scheme. October, 1838, to the publication of which tive, and designing to act on that principle, tion, our correspondent says: opinions should be known."

by the tenderness of mellow music, arrest yourself in the rosy atmosphere of delight, lie treasure belongs, by the Constitution, to the Executive, because, forsooth, the Executive, wards him, I grieve to think that I must cutive has the appointment and romoval of consider him as a supporter of Mr. Van Bu-Preasury bill seemed only intended to re- tion that absorbs all others.

so long as the States have, and exercise the Montesquiou says, Knowledge humanizes power of creating banks, and that without nankind, and education refines it; but pre- the least stint or moderation. It is a moral udice eradicates every tender disposition law which can no more be controlled than any physical law of nature, that if there be that most reckless of all the Spoils organs, about to be married to one of his daughters, two currencles in any country, that which is now and then exhibits a bright stop upon its should be appointed, and the President chargest and least valuable will soon ex- surface. In the last received number there complies. But, Mr. Ledyago is a whig, and fer in this, that the former is for a hard mo-nest currency, only in the money operations tory, is Henry Clay, or the Great Western, of the Government, the latter is for it in all as he is sometimes, by his friends, facetious. he transactions of the community. Iv called. He entered upon the political office, and it is wrong in practice to allow it was that they castrated the Sub-Treasury Jefferson, and kindred spirits, were stripped an appointed and paid officer of the Govern-The subjoined letter of Mr. Leigh will bill of Mr. Calhoun's hard money clause, of the last vestiges of insidious royalty, and ment, and is designed if necessary to be a attract public attention. It is one of the best productions we have seen from the pen of that great and zealous advocate of constitutes them the palladium of our divisions among themselves, that proceed from their giving infinitely greater importance to the few questions on which they which must command the hearty approval of differ, than to those on which they agree. every man who is a Republican in principle; The Ministerial Party have never any insur who is in favor of a divorce of the Purse and mountable disagreements-they unite in the Sword, and epposed to an absolute Exe- the same general purpose, and disregard all cutive.

The views of Mr. L. on this great and vital subject, are those which were entertained by the champion of English freedom; by the lampdens, Sydneys and Russels which this the Sub-Treasury system has afforded a were adopted by the framers of our insti- singular exemplification. When I mention in defence of Jefferson and in reply to Jo- yet. There are so few offices and so many jority of the people of this country shall the Globe, as a system which would give an cease to entertain and enforce in the administration of the Government, that Government will cease to be a blessing. But Mr.

L. expresses his sentiments with such cognow hardly to be contested; but which I ency and eloquence, that their force will be then denied and still strenously deny. They the violated Constitution of his country, politicians, so bitterly denounced the Unia letter scriptible by law, to the custody of the pub-rit, a precious inheritance for generations asked and obtained a loan of $250,000 to come, and for this he can never be for-from the Monster! The State got fairly written by Benjamin Watkins Leigh, Esq. to still holding the same principle as to the ingiven. How vain and impotent is party rage, into the mire under loco-foco management given. How vain and impotent is party rage, into the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind believe to the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind believe to the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind believe to the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind believe to the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind believe to the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind believe to the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind believe to the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind believe to the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man! When the wind the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man will be with the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man will be with the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man will be with the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man will be with the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man will be with the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man will be will be with the mire under loco-foco management directed against such a man will be will onsent.

In transmitting this extract for publica who are opposed to that particular scheme, Jefferson will be hailed with gratitude, his table were they to the horror-striken, conmemory honored and cherished as the se scientious opponents of the Bank, that they tion, our correspondent says:

are still the friends of the administration cond founder of the liberties of the people, and the denoted partizans of the President. and the period of his administration will be enument is returning to Whig policy, and rooting by boring their noses and inserting large pieces of wire, and it was supposed that the ladies might be equally well broken of the troublesome habit they have of listenconceived it to be but an act of justice to chance of being nominated by the opposinimself and his many friends that his real tion. The difference between not giving a zealous positive support to Mr. Van Buren "I can hardly explain my opinions on the and maintaining a zealous positive opposi question of the Sub-Treasury, in the com- tion to all Mr. Van Buren's opponents o pass of a letter. The Sub-Treasury system competitors, is not worth counting. Joinin and under the direction of the Treasury, ly to Mr. Calboun (those of them that I have So you see, my dear sir, though eighty years old, A girl of nineteen falls in love with old Gould. while all the treasury general and subordinate, and the Secretary of the Department, the whole opposition party, as are not surnate, and the Secretary of the Department, the whole opposition party, as are not surshould be held directly responsible to Con- passed by the columns of the Globe or En-But believe me, dear sir, it is Gold without U. gress-this is, accountable, each and every quirer. Now, I can readily understand how one, when called upon, to account directly any man should like the sub Treasury with to Congress, and not indirectly through the all the faults of the assumed principle on President. It was an essential principle of which it is now rested, and all the vices of such system, that the public treasure should its details—that is, prefer it to the unhappy be in the custody of Congress, regulated State Bank Deposite System, which has Young ladies, when you are surrounded entirely by law, and that the President failed so deplorably, and nevertheless, be officers appointed for the custody and ad- ren's re-election. The next election to the inistration of the treasure, and the Sub- Presidency is, in my opinion, the great quescognize by law the President's constitution- It Mr. Van Buren and his party cannot be at right of custody of the public money, and turned out of power-if the doctrine on regulate the details of the system so as to which that party acts-if the principle by the Executive right of custody with which it is cemented—that "the spoils i e nimost possible degree of Executive in- long to the victors"-shall be approved and fluence; and the bill, moreover, pointed out established; if the principle of the exercise is obvious consequences to that same Ers. of Executive patronage for the purpose of curive Bank, which General Jackson was perpetuating power in the hands that he willing to furnish Congress a scheme of, if it, shall still be avowed (as now it is,) prache had been consulted, and which, if the tised and tolerated-if it shall not be sig We have heard of a man so ugly, that a Sub-Treasury bill should ever become a law, nally rebuked and condemned—then will physician has hired him in order to retail will, in a very few years, I am confident, be this government be no longer a blessing, but his shadow out at sixpence a dose, as an openly proposed and adopted. I shall never a curse. I am for Mr. Clay-for him with cknowledge, either directly or indirectly, all my years. If I differed with him on more lion; that the President has, by the Consti- differ from him on many.) I should still most lican and steadfast friend to the best into- though these last were heavier. The boiler learn silence, court the society of those who custody of the Poblic treasure, or any duty ledge of his temper and feelings, leads me powers.—It is not poverty so much as given to or imposed on him by law, and moconceivable roads; by the road of general and preferences to the great object. I had stances. A case has recently occurred the Texian government, have been appoin-

I remain, with all regard, Your obedient servant, B. W. LEIGH.

nt statesmen in the public councils who "One of the most cloquent men of our for the hard money currency, and they dif- country, and one who has acted a promi The great body of the Administration stage at that choice portion of our history, cal arena at Washington, preceded by a reputation for ripe talents and a strong devotion for democratic principles, which promised in one so young and eloquent, auspiclous fruits; he seemed at that time to be

The editor quotes from Mr. Clay's speech tutions—for which Washington and his in the state of selection and his in defence of selections and in teply to seeking places that he will seek in the seeking places that he will seek in the seeking places that he will seek in Quincy, Jr. the file leader of the Federal party in the House of Representatives at that day, as follows:

| In defence of selection and in teply to seeking places that he will seek in Quincy, Jr. the file leader of the Federal party in the House of Representatives at that day, as follows: "Neither is retirement from public office, gentleman, to whom I have been compelled The Winchester (Pa.) Record says the bills we call upon all editors and publishers of pa-pers who approve of the following rules, to endorse them by their aignatures—place them at the head with her ear-rings some half a foot long, in urging that question with brightest epochs of American history—an

him as a friend to the sub-Treasury scheme that by which every man's claims to public and indignant orator speaks of the Federal Mobile, was protested for non-payment; it is 3d. Advance payment will be required from and only reason for it.—After giving a full also, from my recollection of his speech at confidence ought to be tested; and if he opposition to Madison's war, alluding of said other smaller sums have been heretofore course, among other things, to the league protested. For some time past drafts on the among this singular people it had been dis-some short time before to Mr. Pleasants to give his positive support to the Adminis-between Van Buren, King, and others of post office in Mobile have been protested—, covered that pigs could be prevented from and other gentlemen of Richmond. Being tration, and his positive approbation and coand to run a candidate in opposition to, and is over 30,000 .- N. Y. Whig. hereby break down James Madison:

matter with what unfeigned sincerity, with depends the glory of the Belles Letters. what real effort, the administration cultivates peace, the opposition insist, that it alone is culpable for every breach that is made between the two countries. Restriction after restriction has been tried-negotiation has been resorted to, until further negotiation would have been disgraceful.-While these peaceful experiments are undergoing a trial, what is the conduct of the opposition? They are the champions of war the proud, the spirited, the sole repositoof the nation's honor-the men of excluive vigor and energy. The administration prospecia: empty purse—the keeping up a hollow show till General Jackson's time, unheard of that must soon come to an end. Have the claim to a constitutional right in the President of the possesses the virtue of generosity (I use of the possess gentleman well know to him to an entire October next .- N. O. Bec.

From the Nashville Benner, stranger. He signified to the President his AN OASIS IN THE DESERT. desire that Mr. LEDYARD, a young gontle-The "Democratic Republican New Erg," man well qualified for the post, and who is ade that which is decrest and most is a long article relating to Henry Clay, in straight-way the Loco Focos become indig-laable. So far as I am informed, Mr. Cal- the midst of which we find the editor exthe enemy. The N. Y. Evening Post denounces the appointment, and a correspondent calls upon the President to retrace his the Minister in any case to select his own comprises the chosed seaon of Mr. Clay's choose their Secretaries, and always prefer-patriotic exertions. He entered the politithem should be attached to the Legation.-Under former administrations the practice ad been different, but he set his face aainst it. I sincerely hope that our able and ghly esteemed President will, in future, all sensibility and sincerity, and his career in this and all other respects, "fellow in the teps of his illustrious predecessor."

Mr. Van Buren will have a hard time of it

- "Help, Cassins! or I sink!" Who would have believed it? The Comnonwealth of Pennsylvania, after baving, through its public functionaries and leading

N. Y. Whig.

The philosophic spirit is a talent acquired "The course of the opposition by which by labor, art, and long habit, and enables us the administration of the government has to judge correctly of everything in the been unremittingly impeded for the last world. It is an understanding that overtwelve years, is singular and I believe, un- looks nothing, a union of just reasoning that exampled in his history of any country.- nothing can overturn, a sure and Judicious The administration has not been forgetful taste whatever is excellent or vicious in naof its solemn obligations. No art has been ture. It is the rule of the true and the left unessayed—no experiment, promising a beautiful. Nothing, then, is perfect in the favorable result, left untried—to maintain different productions of genius, but what is the peaceful relations of the country. No animated by the spirit; upon it particularly

> "A federal paper said that Judas Iscariot was a democrat." A down easter admits that Judas was once a democrat-but after his apostacy, became a panic Whig .- New Haven Register.

Perfectly in character with the spirit of loco focoism-attempting to turn off their apostate and exposed sub-treasurers upon the Whigs. Judas was a regular sub-treasurer-au exclusive hard money fellow-he "carried the bag," betrayed his trust for thirty pieces of "constitutional currency, and then "went to his own place." We know he pretended to have reformed for a while, but his hard money propensities finally brought him out. Had steamboats and Is the administration for negotiation, the railroads been in fashion in his day, he gotiation. They want to draw the sword might have gone to England or Texas, instead of hanging bimself .- Hart, Courier.

TRIUMPH OF AMERICAN MEGHANICS .- Mr. for war. You find them tacking with every for himself and country an enviable reputacale, displaying the colors of every party, tion. The locomotive made by order of the and of all nations, steady only in one unal- Birmingham and Gloucester railroad, Engterable purpose, to steer if possible, into the land, has arrived out to its destination, and manner (says the conditions required, vis, twenty miles an ditor of the New Era) that Mr. Clay vindi- hour in much less than the time. The most If all the public men of our constry, he the English papers. It weight only eight tons, and draw a load of one hundred and Take care! take care, mendacious Globe, twenty. Its engine is stated to be of a simor some of your demogratic editors will tell plicity, and neatness of workmanship onite more truths and admit more good things surpassing anything of the kind in England, a favor of that sterling Democratic Repub- outstripping their locomotives in speed. at 1 -- than | also, has seventy, luntered of a nundred tuber will suit your pleasure or Mr. Van Buren's like the English. The whole machinery is more compact; and such is the mathematical precision says the English account, the

A young girl will not hesitate to tell you her age; but you don't catch an 'old 'un' her age; but you don't catch an 'old 'un' doing that thing.

A young girl will not hesitate to tell you correspond to run the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendancy of the least design, when I took pea in which strongly proves the accendance in the least design and the least design at the least design at the lea Legation; a confidential assistant, near to S. and Mexico. The commissioners will his person; and, of course, he preferred a enter upon this duty on, or before the 13th